

LOCAL EVENTS MARCH 2010

Jackie Oates

In 2008 Jackie Oates was nominated as best newcomer in the BBC Radio 2 Folk Awards and a swathe of glowing national reviews followed the release of her album, The Violet Hour, which was included on Mojo's top ten folk albums of 2008. Jackie is based in the South West and tonight presents music from her latest album, Hyperboreans.

8pm Tickets- £10, Concessions £9, Students and under 16s £5

Great Hall, Dartington Devon TQ9 6EL

Sat Mar 6, 2010

Summer Tree Identification

Learn to identify native trees by: - Observing colour, winter buds, form & texture - drawing - Interesting information about medicinal & food uses Cost £5 adults, £1 children please book with Liz Turner, Trees for Health: 01803 867018/ info@treesforhealth.org

11-1

Follaton Arboretum, Plymouth Road, Totnes Devon TQ9 5NE

Sun Mar 7, 2010

Guest Night at Totnes Folk Song Club

Nick Wyke & Becki Discoll will be the guests at Totnes Folk Song Club on Thursday 11th March. Nick & Becki are highly respected musicians, composers and workshop leaders from North Devon.

Doors open 8.00pm. Admission £6.00 / Performers £5.00 No advanced tickets on sale

The Dartmouth Inn, Warland, The Plains, Totnes Devon TQ9 5EL

Thu Mar 11, 2010

Kingston House - Open Garden for NGS

George II 1735 house Grade II (not open). Gardens restored in keeping with the period. Walled garden, rose garden, pleached limes and hornbeams, vegetable garden. Unusual formal garden with santolinas, lavender and camomile. Large formal parterre. 6000 tulips in bloom mid-May, maybe!

Admission £4, Children 50p Open for charity.

Kingston House, Staverton Devon TQ9 6AR

Sun Mar 21, 2010